

January 2018

Who ever names a bear Consuela... you guessed it. Lilian. I had only stumbled out of my resting spot momentarily when I heard a lot of commotion and barking of dogs. Big dogs I assumed. Lilian swooshed them away, at that time she had not seen me. When she did she let out a frightening welp and I let her know I was not there to harm her. Somehow she understood me and with that our friendship began. She is a strange Human and insists Bear is one of her power animals in her totem. I am glad this way I can move about freely.

I am not resting so well these days, being pregnant is not my cup of tea, 180-270 days before giving birth and in true bear fashion Dad left as soon as he thought he had mastered his task of impregnating me and I fetch for myself. I notices how many human children are also without their fathers, except they do not fare that well.

Guess I should explain how I moved into Lilian's yard accidently. My intent was to head for the near-by Mima Mounds except I get tired or let truth be told...lazy. Normally Brown Bears dig dens for winter hibernation, often holding up in a suitable hillside. Females, or she-bears, den while pregnant and give birth during this winter rest, usually to a pair of cubs. Well after I made it as far as the wooded neighborhood at Lilian's I decided to take a nap and there I stayed till she spotted me, friended me and said I could hang out, providing I do not scare the neighbors. In my slumber, well half slumber, I listened to some of the conversations Lilian has on the phone and guess I can be a tattle tell and repeat it. She said nothing about me not telling, maybe she is unaware of my snooping... don't fret she will. She will.

The book Mr McKrekor was finished in time for people to send it as gifts for the holiday. The Introduction was late but somehow it found it's way into the book by way of the Editor. Some had not seen it so I will share it with you.

The weather here in beautiful Southern Florida is a distraction as is my search for housing, a job and attending to my elderly parents. My deepest and sincere apologies for sending this off so late.

My thoughts on Lilian's recent production cannot be separated from, nor can it occur without my recalling my first encounter(s) with Lilian. She arrived at my office on 4th Avenue in Olympia as I imagined her, although in truth I had no idea who she was nor did I know that she even existed. I knew her essence and spirit through her daughter, Michelle. Michelle like her mother is a kind, wise, fierce and gentle woman for whom family, children and legacy are sacred. I was a newly minted lawyer working to establish myself in practice and Michelle chose me (an honor) to protect and defend what was most valuable to her. The universe conspired to give Michelle the outcome she and her family needed. I'm not sure if Lilian's visit was before, during or after my work and partnership with Michelle.

In retrospect, I see that I was called to this family and to Michelle and Lilian. Called by whom? I would venture to say by Lilian, whose matter of fact appearance at my office left me bewildered. I felt off balance during our meeting. I remember she came with a German gentleman, whose name I can no longer recall. She introduced me to him, as though she and I had had a long and familiar relationship—but we had not. I had just met Lilian, I thought. Lilian was and is the manifestation of my own family consciousness a living embodiment of the Santeras, Orishas and Espiritistas who were and are my aunts, cousins, mother and a few brothers. She was family in a way that I could not then comprehend but I accepted. So, when Lilian the mother of all, the sister of all, the one who sees and know came to me, I welcomed her. Wary though I was, I let my guard down and I listened. Lilian's world, her stories, her history were a fusion of myth, legend and transformative truth.

I do not pretend to know who Lilian is, but I can tell you that for me the not knowing is one the beautiful parts of her essence. How can you know everything? How can you know yourself unless you are fully enlightened? How do you fully know another? How can you love that which you cannot fully comprehend, hold or embrace? I don't know the answers to these questions, but I do know and understand instinct. Instinct is that self- trust, a gut level trust in our response and reaction to the universe and its inhabitants. In its purest form, instinct cares not about race, class, gender, politics or religion. It is not based on bias or pre-judgment. It is the knowledge that for good or ill what we sense and like, love, fear or loathe is grounded in ancient and primordial truth. So, trust, instinct and respect are what brought Lilian into my life.

After years of traveling in the same orbit and at times in parallel universes, I reach back and forward to Lilian. This is as it should be, because Lilian traverses both of these realms, looking, learning, interpreting and trusting—her instincts.

Reading Lilian's newsletters, watching her shows and following her predictions are a constant re-introduction to a singular person and a singular world view. Ancient magic, cosmic knowledge, earthly grounding is present in all she touches. I am honored to have had this opportunity to write this introduction. To all who are new to this phenomenon, welcome and to those who have traveled with Lilian, buckle up.

In the News there was an Article Written that Trump cut portions of Bear Ear Preserve, and another Landmark, "The Great Staircase", releasing that Land for Development! ....Very interesting that your Bear earring keeps falling off, it has been cut-off! :)

Say that out loud, "Fire-Walker", then listen to what it says, "Hiawatha"! Don't you see? The Man-Child has been Realized through Real-eyes! Through Two with Nessa's of GOD! ...Sweet! "Hiawatha", "Fire-Walka", "Hiawatha"...can manipulate to guide Him to Lead the People! It is the Ritual of Anointing Him!

Why do you say that about President Trump? what's going to happen to him? He's got to do a lot of cleaning up after Mr Obama, or Mr genocide man as I call him but you've had Republican presidents before, why all the fuss about him? To me its mass hysteria. I don't remember hearing it about the late President Reagan, who offered you all an easy buck and you all went for it as people went for the late Mrs Thatcher here. Neither I don't remember hearing people complain about any of those democrats, e.g. the late President John Kennedy, who have messed America up since the mid 1960s. You guys seemed to love his disgusting brother Edward Kennedy who killed his mistress. President Carter was the only vaguely good one and of course you do didn't like him. As a whole you don't have any concept of right and wrong, just like your motherland Britain (where I'm from)

Ashley Kornelius replied: "My husband and all his friends ARE military and think he's a disaster waiting to happen. They DO NOT support him."

President Trump decided to make Jerusalem the Capitol of Israel and with that ignited much violence in that region and others. He managed to anger everyone to the point an Emergency Meeting of the United Nations had to be called and it was voted AGAINST him. How can ONE MAN upset the whole world in such a small amount of time.... He would not be able to do this in the Animal Kingdom, there are rules to play by.

Major Demonstrations to call for his Impeachment are scheduled for January 20th and a Women march for the next day. Much like in Bear Society Human Females just about have to take compleate control of affairs or the species will not survive.

A train derailed about 20 Miles from Lilian's house, the Video is on the end of the show. 3 people were killed, it was down-graded from 6 and many were hurt, Turned out the virgin ride of some new tracks and the train speeded at 80-MPH instead of 30-MPH.

Children are kicked off Health Care, Energy Assistance and food for old and disabled were canceled, People in charge of the Aids Project in the Government were let go, Puerto Rico will be without power until at least May and it's citizens are treated like a foreigner.

A Local Hospital wrote Lilian a personal letter asking for donations to treat the sick.

Both Lilian and a friend of hers in Florida are experiencing major Landlord problems, she promised to tell you about it next month.

The atmosphere in the country is such that people can discriminate and take liberties unheard of just 12 month ago and so many people are in distress...

Christians celebrated Christmas, stores were hellish to maneuver guess that is a way to have fun.

The 7 days of Kwanzaa was a time of reflection, self-determination and caring for one another.

CNN was running the series The 90's over the weekend, it's amazing just how fast we forget how we got to this point and how everything is a repeat, like changing your clothes assuming you will be someone else by doing that. The young can learn something and it will be helpful for them to understand what the meaning of events are we have been forced to make reference to after all this time.

Changing of the year is always tricky when looking at all the small new laws which will go into force as soon as the Ball is lowered. With the privatizing of so many prisons a steady workforce is in demand and it was brought to our attention that Attorney General Sessions now wants to incarcerate people in dept and bringing back Debtor's Servitude.

Our long time friend Alaia Leighland walked on suddenly. She had just started her new life in Thailand and she will be missed by so many of us.

I am sleepy, I am big and pregnant and so ready to have my cups, question is where do we live? Who has heard of a homeless Lady Bear. It is said bears will eat anything, but I don't know about that. Changing of the calendar will take all, animal and humans, to new territory and an unsure future. Guess I will get to hibernating for a bit, my time is coming soon, and I will have to chace little bear claws. Lilian made reference to a pastry by that name and I was so relieved when she arrived with "Pig Ears" she calls them....PALMIERS
